

THE FIVE MOST IMPORTANT QUESTIONS
FOR TEACHERS TO ASK THEMSELVES

WHO are my students?

WHAT skills and information do I want them to have at the end of this class? this course?

WHY are those skills and that information important to their learning? To their future?

HOW can I structure my class/course to enable my students to best learn those skills and that information?

HOW can I determine whether or not my students have really learned those skills and that information?
